Dear Parents

Parents' evenings will take place next week. To book an appointment please go onto the class Dojo page for your child/children, where you should see a link.

Sports Festival Godrevy Class has been invited to take part in a Small Schools Hub sports festival at Halwin School on Wednesday 20th November. During this fun and inclusive afternoon, the children will have the opportunity to take part in various sporting activities alongside pupils from Halwin, Godolphin, Sithney and Garras.

Residential 2025 a payment plan has been set up on ParentPay to enable this to be paid in instalments. The first payment due is the non-refundable deposit of £50 which is due by November 29th.

Praa Sands Class made the most of the beautiful weather on Wednesday. The children were hunting for objects of different textures in the woods.

Friday November 22nd

Hatchbox Photography will be taking individual and family photographs during the afternoon. If you would like Little Learners to be included you will need to bring them to school at 3pm to have an individual photograph or be photographed with siblings.

Parent Workshops

The last workshop is: Internet safety – Tuesday 26th November at 2:30pm in the hall – for all parents of children of all ages, to provide a better understanding of the risks involved and how to keep children safe when they are online.

Papyrus, Pyramids & Power

The Boy at the Back of the Class by Onjali Rauf

The Story of Tutankhamun serves as an example text for how to write effective non-fiction texts. And, while not set in Egypt, The Boy in the Back of Class continues the theme of understanding the middle east and is known to be a text that will grip the children's imagination.

Trannack Reading Spine

Over the past year, we have been working very hard to develop our curriculum at Trannack. As a part of that, we have written a new reading spine for the school, which outlines which fiction and non-fiction texts are used in each class throughout the year and over the course of our two-year rolling programmes. All the texts that we have chosen are high quality, engaging texts that are age-appropriate and link with our curriculum topics. This term in Godrevy, we are reading Papyrus, Pyramids & Power as our fiction text.

1. Sharing time reading and enjoying books together is how your child develops a lifelong love of reading.

Accelerated Reader

To support our KS2 children to develop their reading skills, we use a programme called Accelerated Reader. Each child completes a short assessment at the beginning of every half term which provides them with a numbered banding of books for them to choose from. Once they have finished their book, the children complete a short quiz to test their understanding of the book they have read. Every time a child does a quiz, the wordcount for the book they have finished is
